HONGKONG, SATURDAY, JUNE 29, 1901.

Editorial Comment.

SANITATION. F. H. May at the Sanitary Board meeting, on Thursday.

LEGISLATION. day last, with regard to the restriction of the height of buildings in the Colony, have an old familiar ring. We seem to hear the echo of old days, when Mr. May's outspoken utterances were received with general approbation - except from the property owners and their satellites. Now that he has again returned to this question of sanitary dwellings, we hope the Captain Superintendent of Police will strive strenuously, in the Sanitary Board and in the Legislative Council, for the principles he has laid down in the interests of public health.

We are convinced that if the Government had adopted a liberal and comprehensive scheme in 1894, instead of yielding to the importunities of the property owners and tinkering with the whole question, Hongkong would not have suffered so severely from these recurring plague epidemics. We do not say the disease would have been eradicated. But we do maintain that the conditions for the propagation and spread of the disease would have been less favourable, the epidemics, had they occurred, would have been less severe, and the commercial interests would not have been sacrificed to the interests of the property owners. Mr. May's remarks on Thursday were characterised by the utmost fairness. Nobody has a desire to deprive the property owners of what is justly and equitably their rights; but if those individuals selfishly sacrifice the welfare of the Colony and endanger its commercial and maritime interests permanently, besides making the Colony pay a yearly toll in the shape of human lives that might well be saved, then, in the name of all that is fair and just and reasonable, what consideration do the property owners deserve? Self-preservation is a law of nature. If anybody is to suffer in our efforts to get rid of plague let it be the men who build insanitary houses, and then rack-rent their tenants. In this Colony, the landlord bears few, if any, of the burdens imposed by the Government. It may happen that for a time the burden of the improvements will fall on the tenants - as it does at present; but that must be endured unless the Government will follow the example of Bombay and other places, form a Trust, and build houses to accommodate the poorer classes at a fair rental. We know that the Government refused to sanction or adopt the Sanitary Board's proposal for a Trust; but that is no reason why the scheme should not be again put forward if it is considered, by those best competent to judge, the best means of coping immediately with the difficulty. In this connection, we would quote the following paragraph from the letter of the Calcutta correspondent of a Rangoon contemporary:

"The difficulty of housing the poorer classes has long been under consideration by the City Fathers, but while they have been wasting time in an acrimonious discussion of the subject, two private individuals have set themselves to practically solve the difficulty by obtaining a building licence on their own land, and at their own cost. This dwelling is to be built on the lines of the houses adopted by the Bombay Improvement Trust. It will be three-storied, and will contain about sixty rooms, with the most up-to-date arrangements for light, ventilation and sanitation, and will be constructed at a cost of Rs. 40,000. House accommodation for the poorer classes is a matter in which the Corporation and the Government are especially interested, but it has been left to the public spirit of two generous native gentlemen to take the initiative in the matter. If the experiment turns out a success from a financial point of view, there is no doubt that other owners of lands will follow this lead, and the poorer classes will be provided with clean and sanitary dwellings. The Corporation have allotted two lakhs of rupees for this purpose."

The Government has now an opportunity of achieving a sanitary regeneration of Hongkong. It has the irresistible logic of successive epidemics to support it in an appeal to the Colonial Office to be allowed to do something. It has the public Press - not much, perhaps, but still the public Press of the Colony - unanimously urging the Government to undertake its duty to the public. It has an almost unanimous public opinion supporting the officials responsible for the public health of the Colony in the advocacy of remedial measures. The only likely dissentients are the property owners - many of whom are absentees, who run up the poles of hardships of residents in the Colony. Never was a Government more favourably situated to enter upon a comprehensive scheme of sanitary reform, and it will be a lasting disgrace to the present Government and its responsible advisers if they allow this opportunity to pass without taking action to protect the public health and to prevent a recurrence of expensive epidemics inimical to the interests of the port and Colony of Hongkong. The Naval and Military authorities should be vitally interested in this question. Are they making representations to the Admiralty and the War Office respecting the dangers their troops are open to by living in a sub-tropical Colony where hygienic and sanitary principles are consistently contravened with impunity by Oriental property-owners? Will they back up Mr. May and Mr. Osborn in their crusade against insanitary dwellings?

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

Notes by the Way.

The King is said to be an enthusiastic and successful player of 'bridge.' Must make up the shortcomings of his income somehow.

New golf links have been opened at Manila. Judge Taft, the honorary president of the Golf Club, opened the play with Mr. W. A. Oran, of the Hongkong Bank.

Yesterday was the anniversary of Queen Victoria's coronation day, and a telegram was received at the Naval Yard to regard it as a holiday. The telegram came too late, however, so the Yard employees are enjoying a much-needed holiday today.

When Sir Alfred Milner chooses as his title 'Lord Milner of Cape Town,' the romance of nobility seems to be rapidly on the wane. Presently we shall have some new-made member of the Upper House calling himself 'Lord Scruggs of Smith Street.'

We commend the following paragraph to Hongkong gold-mine speculators - Certain Americans are arranging to put $15,000,000 in a Peruvian mining enterprise. If there isn't gold in the ground now, there should be when the fifteen millions have been sunk in it.

One of the petty subsidiary princes of the German Empire has just given up his right of succession to his duchy in order to marry a bride not of royal blood. It sounds rather grand, but who wouldn't prefer the woman he loved to a little fiddling seven-and-dixie dukedom? Emperor William may find means to wipe off the geographical slate any time his dinner happens to disagree with him, says an American contemporary.

Water Polo.

A water polo match between teams representing the Garrison and Field Buttery, H.K.V.C., will be played at the V.R.C. Kowloon, on Monday next, the 1st July, at 5.45 p.m. sharp. The following are the teams:-

Garrison (White Caps): - Genl. Gr. Josling, R.G.A. backs, Gr. Stielgren, R.G.A., Pto. Monk, R.W.F., half-back, Gr. Martens, R.G.A.; forwards, Cpl. Morris, R.G.A. (Capt.), Pto. Gregory, R.W.F., Pto. Hoag, R. W. F.

Field Buttery, H. K. V. C. (Red Caps): - Genl. Gr. Kennett; backs, Gr. Lupton, Gr. Loureiro; half-back, Gr. A. E. Alves; forwards, Lt. Armstrong (Capt.), Gr. A. A. Alves, Gr. Miller.

Trade Prospects in Japan.

The Kobe Chronicle of the 11th inst. says: - There is a slight recovery in shares, but trade generally continues to mark time, the report in all directions being that there is nothing doing. So much is this the case that some firms must, clearly be living on their capital in hope of better days.

banks continue to hold a very tight rein of course still further to restrict business, and credits are still not so good. There are most gloomy predictions with regard to what will happen at the end of the current month. The foreign loan, we understand, doing their best to prevent the contents of gold-mines being thrown suddenly upon the market, as this would cause a drop in prices that would materially injure general interests. Though the outlook is not very promising, there is hope that as the early crops are now being reaped and have turned out well, there may be a gradual relaxation in the tension, especially if the later harvest should prove favourable. But, much, of course, may happen before then.

Servant Registration at Bangkok.

The other day a Singapore paper announced the practical collapse of the servants' registration scheme in Bangkok. But it is too early to say that the unregistered 'boy' has triumphed (says the Bangkok Times); after all, the scheme has not been tried for a month yet, and it was not to be expected that success would be attained without a struggle. It is a fact, however, that the scheme is meeting a lot of opposition from the Chinese and Chinese little support from masters. But every master would prefer to have registered servants about whose record he can know something, and by and by the men who are registered will disappear, not only that they are not wanted, but that they are not employed in the best houses, more so than unregistered men can. That discovery, however, will take time, and what is wanted now is steady pressure on the part of employers, who ought to be able to look further ahead than the servants. At the present moment a good deal is to be hoped from the committee of the United Club in assisting on the Club servants' registering. Anyhow registration is still going on, and there is yet no intention of abandoning the scheme.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

The Share Market.

In their weekly share circular of this date, Messrs. Erich Georg and Co. say:-

The business during the week under review has been fairly active, and for some stocks rates have rather erratically under the influence of the approaching settlement, which is expected to pass off very smoothly.

Hongkong Hotel.

The Band of the Madras Light Infantry will play at the Hongkong Hotel this (Saturday) evening from 8 p.m. to 9.30 p.m.:-

Selection: "The Shop Girl" ... Caryl Song ... "Abide with me" ... Little Waltz ... "Doctrines" ... Strauss Gavotte ... "Zephyr" ... Ellenberg Selection: "San Toy" ... Ellenberg (Moroccan Obligato) ... Suppe

God Save the King.

That National Holiday.

The following little skit appears in the China Times:-

REUTER TELEGRAMS.

(Specially imported at enormous cost.)

London, no date.

King Edward has given orders that his next birthday is to be celebrated on July 4, in recognition of American independence.

Day later.

The King says his birthday will be on the August bank holiday in each year. His Majesty is determined to have as many birthdays as he likes.

Later still.

Her Majesty the Queen has decided to abolish birthdays. Her Majesty recommends the rest of the nation of the empire to do the same. Her Majesty refuses to allow the King to make her 120 years old.

The Kipling Club.

It is interesting, says an American contemporary, to compare the American with the English sales of Mr. Kipling's books. Up to the close of 19 0, 55,000 copies of 'The Jungle Book' had been disposed of in the author's native country, and 55,000 in the United States. Of 'The Second Jungle Book' the sale there had been 38,000, and here 34,000. A still greater discrepancy is to be noted in the case of 'Captains Courageous,' of which the English market had absorbed only 27,000 copies and the American 57,000. But, then, this is an American story. It is estimated that the English sale of Kipling's works has aggregated 300,000. In this country the figures would doubtless be several times as large.

Assault with a Chopper.

Before Mr. Kemp, at the Police Court today, Chan Sing, married Canton, was charged with unlawfully cutting and wounding another married woman named Ng Sze. The complainant's story was to the effect that, on the afternoon of Thursday, she went to her aunt's house on a visit. The defendant was in the room when she called and asked complainant what she wanted there. The defendant then accused the complainant of being a thief and they quarrelled. From words they came to blows, and finally defendant lost control of her temper, rushed to the kitchen, brought out a wood chopper and struck complainant a blow on the head with it. The complainant was insensible for a little, and when she recovered she called the police, and defendant was arrested. Prisoner was sent to goal for fourteen days with hard labour, and was bound over to keep the peace for a period of six months.

A Pawnshop Strike.

There are no pawnshops in Bangkok (says the Bangkok Times). A short time ago it had probably as many, in proportion to its population, as any town in the Far East, and now it has the great distinction of being entirely free of them. This Regulations which came into force on the 1st of April gave pawnbrokers two months in which to take out licences. Not a single licence has been issued, and pawnbroking is to-day an entirely illegal business in Bangkok. The former pawnbrokers have turned their shops into clothes stores, and much like, and, though no doubt, illicit pawnbroking is going on it is more with old women and opium and liquor-shops than with the former pawnshops. Many of the Chinese, but they will gradually realise that they are mistaken. When the regulations came out these men took the line that they were indispensable, particularly to the gambling houses, and therefore to the Government. But Sims is beginning to recognize that the closing of the pawnshops is likely to effect a bigger reform in the condition of the people than was at first thought possible. Under the old regime every man had his master, under the new regime there are many masterless men who have not learned to work. Gambling and petty thieving have provided the means by which not a few people have lived, and the unlicensed pawnshops were an incentive to theft. We have to-day a letter from a Singapore correspondent in which he states that it is already a considerable addition to the number of Siamese who may be seen working as coolies in Bangkok. That in any case is the result to be expected, and there is no that may effect a very big change to Sims. At the same time there is a tiny quantity now for a lawful pawnshop or two, and in all probability some one will start one soon.

Army Temperance Association.

The 2nd Royal Welch Fusilier section of the Army Temperance Association held its annual picnic on Thursday last, large numbers of both military and civilian friends being present. Starting from Murray Pier at 1.30 p.m. in beautiful weather, a splendid row brought all safely to Deep Water Bay. No time being lost by the working committee, sports were at once in full swing. Some very interesting and keenly contested events came off. Too ready, all set down and did justice to the good things provided. The whole party was then photographed by Yers, and valuable prizes were kindly presented to the winners by Mrs. J. F. Clive. This brought a very enjoyable day's outing to a close. It may be mentioned that the arrangements were excellently carried out by Messrs J. Morton (President) and F. Thompson (Secretary). The working committee of each department did their part to perfection. The ladies also gave a valuable helping hand in the arranging of tea, etc. Although slightly marred by a few passing showers, everyone confessed they had spent a very happy and enjoyable time. The string band of the regiment, under Sergt. Hunt, played to some good songs, and gave excellent music both to and from Deep Water Bay. We hope the A.T.A. will give another outing in the near future. - Communicated.

THE PLAGUE.

During the past twenty-four hours there were only four new cases of plague (3 Chinese, 1 other Asiatic) and two deaths (Chinese). The totals to date now are:- Cases, 1468 (Chinese, 1418; other Asiatic, 47; Europeans, 25); deaths, 1415 (Chinese, 1374; other Asiatic, 32; Europeans, 9). It is satisfactory to report that Mr. Wacker, who was recently removed from No. 26, Dalhousie Terrace to the Plague Hospital at Kennedytown, was discharged today. Mrs. Varcoe, of Wild Wall, and Mrs. de Cruz, No. 11 Battery Street, Yau-mai, were also discharged, the disease having left them. Mrs. Willoughby, who has been in Hospital a considerable time, is improving steadily. Mrs. Brownhill and Mrs. Herbert are both doing well, and it is expected that Mr. Meek will be able to take his discharge shortly.

SEAMEN OF H.M.S. 'HERMIONE' IN TROUBLE.

A Costly Monkey.

Mr. Hazell had three cases before him to-day, at the Magistracy, all of which arose out of a bit of 'monkeying' with a monkey on the part of a number of the seamen belonging to H.M.S. Hermione. J. J. Borrow and W. A. Sims, seamen, were charged with stealing a monkey and wooden cage, value $3.16, from a bird shop in Cochrane Street. Both defendants pleaded 'not guilty,' and evidence was led. A coolie employed in the shop said that on the previous night, about 9.30, four or five blue jackets came into the shop and wanted to buy a monkey. He told them the price was $2.50, and they offered 50 cents. With noses refused to accept so small an amount and the blue-jackets broke the cage. Witness then put the monkey into another cage and the blue-jackets picked it up and ran off with it without paying. The defendant Sims was the one who picked up the cage. Witness ran after the sailors and they struck him. The police arrived on the scene, and Borrow was caught at the Clock Tower with the monkey in his possession. Corroborative evidence was given by another shop-keeper. Police Constable Riley said he heard a police whistle sounded in Des Voeux Road, near the Hongkong Hotel. He saw the first defendant holding the monkey in the cage. The complainant was near him and showed blood marks. The complainant said the first defendant had stolen the monkey, and witness asked him to come to the Police Station. Defendant refused, and witness took him into custody. The second defendant then tried to rescue him. The first defendant broke away, and Sims struck. Inspector McNab, who had arrived, and pushed him into the side channel. A seaman of the Hermione, called for the defence, said the constable was using Borrow roughly. A signaller from the Hermione corroborated this statement. He said a dollar was offered for the monkey. The seamen, except Sims, all left the shop having failed to make a bargain. Sims joined them shortly after with the monkey in his hand. Borrow took the cage from Sims and walked on in front. When witness got to the clock tower Borrow was in custody. Borrow made a statement from which it appeared that he took the monkey from Sims under the impression that it had been paid for. Borrow was discharged, but Sims was sentenced to imprisonment for three weeks with hard labour. Sims was further charged with attempting to rescue Borrow from the custody of the police. Inspector McNab, who was the complainant, said Borrow was pointed out by the shop-keeper as the man who stole the monkey. The complainant told Borrow to come to the Station. Borrow, however, became violent, and Sims came up and seized the Inspector by the waist, threw him off and hustled him down the street for twenty yards. Other two seamen advised Borrow not to go to the Station. Borrow was rescued, but was re-arrested, and when D'Agulha Street was reached, walked quietly up to the station. The others followed blaspheming and abusing the police. They were arrested when they got to the charge room. For this offence, Sims was fined $25, on failing payment, he would suffer an additional three weeks' hard labour. The fine was paid. A. Dwyer and F. A. Creek, seamen, were charged with behaving in a disorderly manner. The first defendant was fined $5, which was paid, and the second defendant was discharged.

Prosperous Men Know the Value of Good Health.

Men who have been successful in life have learned that the greatest and most essential factor in the success of any undertaking is Health. This is true even in those whose pursuits call principally for mental activity, for health of mind is dependent upon health of body. No one whose system is racked with pain, who feels tired and listless, who is weak, whose blood is thin, pale and watery, can expect to reach the same degree of success as if he were enjoying robust health, with his every organ properly nourished and performing its best function. Prosperous men realize this and are ever guarding their health. Those using Stearns' Wine of Cod Liver Oil find it an equally potent remedy. Under its use, every organ of the body is strengthened, the blood is enriched and purified and nutrition brought up to the highest point. Business men of all classes, who have tried it, consider it one of their necessities. As one well-known and successful business-man lately expressed it: "Empirically Stearns' Wine of Cod Liver Oil has no equal." At all Chemists and Wholesale Druggists, and at A. S. ## AMERICAN UNDERTAKING IN JAPAN.

The Mailing and Printing of Cigarette Boxes.

A representative of the Kobe Chronicle recently had the opportunity of inspecting the factory of the Oriental Printing Company, Ltd., at Kyoto - an enterprise which has been established specially for the mailing and printing of cigarette boxes. We understand that the capital of this undertaking is 'two-fifths American' and three-fifths Japanese, while the business is carried on entirely on American principles. For example, the check system is adopted in dealing with the workmen's time, and every man must have his check stamped on passing in or out of the works, the stamping being done by a clock which automatically registers the minutes the clock was placed to the stop.

The Oriental Printing Co. is located on the outskirts of Kyoto, close to the railway, where a large piece of ground has been secured and left for many years unoccupied. All the machinery of the latest type and mostly imported from America, one or two special machines, however, being of German make. The machinery is driven by an electric motor, the power for which is derived from a small steam engine fitted on the premises. There are ten foreign printers employed and one local lithographic artist.

A visit to the works was found most interesting. The boards for making cigarette boxes are imported from the rest of the manufacturing provinces, and are sent to Kyoto from the colouring and printing of the surface to the finishing of the new little boxes in which the cigarettes are enclosed. There is printing from aluminium surfaces, lithographic plates and engraved plates; at that it is possible to work all these different processes in operation, and to adapt the fine work turned out by the machines. Perhaps the most interesting sight was the machine which took in one end a long strip of cut-out cardboard, and turned it out at the other end a box of five ready for filling. All this is done, however, with the aid of a few workmen, and the skill shown by the lithographic artist, affording evidence of the perfection to which this industry has been brought.

As we have said, these works are conducted on American lines, and the workmen are evidently under much more strict discipline than is usual in Japanese offices - some of them having been trained in a similar establishment in Rochester, N.Y., and it would be interesting to learn how the methods work in this country. But the establishment of such an undertaking is possibly an indication of the tendency to sell or foreign manufacturing enterprises in this country - a tendency that would be much more rapid, to the great advantage of Japan, were it not
